

-The Washington, D.C. / Destination Management Company-

Special Events / Business Theater / Transportation / Tours

- A Professional Resume -

Top 10 Reasons to Work with Uniquely-DC!

- They have flawlessly transported hundreds of thousands of people between airports, hotels, convention centers and special event venues.
- They have created amazing themed environments that entertained hundreds of thousands of people at special events across the US and abroad.
- They have been the technical director, stage manager, producer and audio visual equipment provider for the introduction of major automotive, motorcycle, boat, personal watercraft, pharmaceutical and retail products as well as numerous Awards Galas, Special Events and General Sessions.
- They have negotiated millions of dollars in hotel and convention center contracts across the United States of America.
- They have delivered over $30 million in sales of convention and meetings related services whose hallmark for success was their keen ability to deliver high quality customer service.
- They have worked in the contracting and rider servicing of headline entertainers, bands, celebrities and novelty acts including recognizable names like Bob Hope, Chubby Checker, Celine Dion, Paula Abdul, Lee Greenwood, Wynona, The Beach Boys and many others.
- They are experienced, creative, hard working, technically savvy, well spoken and overall "nice people"!
- They have shipped meetings overseas and assisted in securing the safety of hundreds of meeting attendees while experiencing a direct hit from a hurricane in Puerto Rico.
- They have an "In-House" production division capable of building most anything!
- They have pretty much "been there & done that"!